

ACADEMY OF CANINE BEHAVIOR IS HOSTING A SUPPLIES DRIVE TO BENEFIT THE HUMANE SOCIETY OF SKAGIT VALLEY

The Academy of Canine Behavior & The Humane Society of Skagit Valley have had an ongoing partnership together for several years. We take on difficult shelter dogs who would otherwise face euthanasia and put them through our 5-week board and train program, pro-bono, in order to make them adoptable. We then support the new owners by providing the free working visits for the life of the dog that is normally offered in conjunction with our 5-week board and train program.

The Humane Society of Skagit Valley is a nonprofit shelter located in Burlington, WA. HSSV is an open-admission shelter, meaning they accept any companion animal in need of their help. As a non-profit they rely heavily on donations and volunteers. They work very hard to help these animals find homes, and unlike the greater Seattle area resources in the Skagit valley are limited. With Covid-19 and the current economy the need is even greater! We are holding this donation drive to help provide them essential resources for animal care. Even a small donation can help an animal have what it needs while waiting for their new family. Or help a volunteer have gas so they can make it to the shelter to care for the animals!
